

TOOHEYS NEWCASTLE RUGBY LEAGUE 2019 GRAND FINAL

MATT'S MESSAGE

Congratulations to each of the ten teams who have won through to this Sunday's 2019 Tooheys Newcastle Rugby League grand finals at McDonald Jones Stadium. After 16 home-and-away rounds and three weeks of finals football we will see six of our eight clubs represented across the five competitions. Western Suburbs with four teams, South Newcastle fielding two teams while Cessnock, Central Newcastle, Lakes United and Maitland each have one team representing their clubs.

In the Business Plaza Cup Cessnock won the right to challenge Western Suburbs with a strong victory over Central Newcastle in last Sunday's preliminary final. Building on the momentum gained over the previous three weeks, the Goannas turned an 18 - 4 halftime lead into a dominant 34 to 8 win. The young Central Newcastle team fell one game short of an elusive grand final appearance but should be more than satisfied with their season and be optimistic about their future. Winners in the other grades were South Newcastle (OAS reserve grade), Maitland (open grade), Western Suburbs (HPP under 19s) and South Newcastle (Monarch blues tag).

Action this Sunday kicks off at 9.40am with Central Newcastle against South Newcastle in the Monarch blues tag grand final. Minor premiers Central have been the dominant team over the last three seasons but are yet to claim a major premiership trophy. Could this be their year? In the HPP under 19s Lakes United take on Western Suburbs in what is shaping as potentially the game of the day. Both teams are extremely evenly matched and their major semi-final clash was a high quality, physical encounter. The Western Suburbs v Maitland Pickers open grade fixture will see a fifth place Pickers outfit try and continue their run and topple a very strong Rosellas team. In the OAS reserve grade game one plays two with Western Suburbs up against South Newcastle.

In the Business Plaza Cup grand final, kicking off at 3.30pm, Cessnock will be out to cause a monumental upset by beating minor premiers and overwhelming favourites Western Suburbs. The Goannas are on a roll and turned in arguably their most impressive performance of the season in their preliminary final win over Central Newcastle last weekend. While they suffered a heavy defeat in their last game against the Rosellas they are one of only two teams that have beaten Wests this season. The Rosellas, led by 2019 player of the year Luke Walsh, have proven throughout the season that on their day they are untouchable. They have strike power all across the park and the Goannas will need to step-up another level to be in the game. As shown by Macquarie's upset win over Wests in 2017 anything is possible.

Best of luck to all teams, players and support staff.

In closing I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the players and in particular the volunteers for their substantial contribution to the 2019 Newcastle RL season. I would also like to thank the supporters who turn up week-after-week to support their clubs.
