

TOOHEYS NEWCASTLE RUGBY LEAGUE 2019 FINALS SERIES WEEK TWO

DENTON

MATT'S MESSAGE

CEO MATT HARRIS

After some late ground rescheduling due to horrid weather conditions, week 1 of the Denton Engineering & Hydraulics Finals Series was completed at Maitland Sportsground. Despite a significant amount of rain across a number of days, including the Saturday, the playing surface of the newly refurbished sportsground was amazing allowing not only all finals games to go ahead but the teams to play open, dry weather football. A big thankyou to Maitland City Council and the Pickers.

In Saturday's elimination final, Cessnock dominated the first half of the match to open up a 14 nil lead after 42 minutes. As anticipated the Pickers fought back with two tries to narrow the gap to 4 with more than 20 minutes left on the clock. Despite Maitland creating a number of late opportunities to snatch victory the Goannas hung on for a dramatic 14 to 10 win. The result ended Maitland's season while Cessnock advance to this Saturday's minor semi-final. Results in the remaining grades were as

- OAS reserve grade: Kurri Kurri 26 Macquarie 4
- Open grade: Maitland 22 Lakes United 10
- HPP under 19s: South Newcastle 16 Central Newcastle 10
- Monarch blues tag: Lakes United 20 Kurri Kurri 16

The qualifying final was another nail biter with the Butcher Boys turning in a dominant first half to lead South Newcastle 24 – 12 at the break. The Lions wrestled back the momentum mid-way through the second half and two converted tries levelled scores with 10 minutes left to play. In a pulsating finish, an opportunist try to Central's Thomas Madden in the 77th minute clinched a memorable win for the young Central Newcastle team. Results in the remaining grades were as follows:

- OAS reserve grade: South Newcastle 21 Cessnock 20
- Open grade: Kurri Kurri 28 South Newcastle 6
- HPP under 19s: West Newcastle 18 Cessnock 8
- Monarch blues tag: West Newcastle 12 South Newcastle 10

Week 2 finals action kicks off on Saturday at Cessnock Sportsground. In the minor semi-final, Cessnock will look to continue their momentum to topple South Newcastle who are battling injuries and a run of three losses. In their round 16 clash, the Goannas scrapped home with a 18 – 14 win. The remaining minor semi-final fixtures are:

- OAS Reserve grade: South Newcastle v Kurri Kurri
- Open grade: South Newcastle v Maitland
- HPP Under 19s: Cessnock v South Newcastle
- Monarch blues Tag: South Newcastle v Lakes United

*Due to playing an unqualified player South Newcastle reserve grade's qualifying finals win was forfeited and consequently they were relegated to the minor semi-final game.

On Sunday, minor premiers West Newcastle host Central Newcastle at Harker Oval. Their last meeting saw the Rosellas humble the Butcher Boys 61 to nil but since that result Central have gone on a run of 6 wins and a draw. West have been the dominant team this season and will be strong favourites to book the first spot in this year's grand final. The remaining minor semi-final fixtures are:

- OAS Reserve grade: West Newcastle v Cessnock
- Open grade: West Newcastle v Kurri Kurri
- HPP Under 19s: Lakes United v West Newcastle
- Monarch blues tag: Central Newcastle v West Newcastle (blues tag).

Both first grade finals games will be live-streamed by BarTV and can be viewed via our updated website (www.newcastlerugbyleague.com.au) or Facebook page (Tooheys Newcastle Rugby League).

A reminder to keep up-to-date with everything Newcastle Rugby League by following us on Facebook (Tooheys Newcastle Rugby League), Twitter (@Newcastle_RL) and via our new website (www.newcastlerugbyleague.com.au). NEXT ROUND - FINALS ROUND TWO

MINOR FINAL: SATURDAY 7TH SEPTEMBER | MAJOR FINAL: SUNDAY 8TH SEPTEMBER

PLAYER OF THE YEAR POINTS

As we enter the final competition rounds, round eleven marks the last public updates of the player of the year leader board and individual player points. The final results and awards will be announced at the Newcastle Rugby League presentation night.

2019 PLAYER POINTS

In 2019 the Newcastle Rugby League has moved to a new points system. Each club is entitled to register players a maximum 130 player points across the club in all grades (please note all Blues Tag players are all classified as zero points). In addition, on game day all first grade teams are capped at 100 points per match. All of a clubs registered players and their points value is available to view at www.newcastlerugbyleague.com.au/club-points.html

LIVE SCORING FOR FIRST GRADE

All first grade teams for each weekend are posted on nswrl.com.au under DRAWS/BUSINESS PLAZA CUP. The first grade teams for each weekend are posted there at 5pm every Tuesday.

In another exciting development, all Newcastle Rugby League first grade matches will be live scored on the New South Wales rugby league website, so you will be able to view the scores and interchanges and they happen on the field. Visit the NSWRL website to follow the scores.
